

First Aid Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

- 2 Cardiogenic shock occurs when the _____ muscle is damaged.
- 6 Blistering of the skin is seen in a _____ degree burn.
- 10 When a bone is improperly aligned in its joint socket, it is said to be _____.
- 12 This type of wound occurs from stepping on a nail, or getting an injection.
- 15 You run a high risk of _____, if you have an open wound, and do not clean it with a disinfectant.
- 16 This type of skin wound looks like a "scrape".

DOWN

- 1 Hemorrhagic shock is caused by a severe _____ loss.
- 3 A lower extremity _____ is the surgical removal of a leg, usually below the knee.
- 4 A _____ degree burn is full-thickness, with charring of the skin.
- 5 Excessive cold exposure can cause the patient to suffer from _____.
- 7 These are applied to an area of bleeding to decrease blood loss, and to keep the site clean.
- 8 This procedure is performed when you come upon an unconscious patient, who is pulseless and not breathing.
- 9 When the cortex of the bone is discontinuous due to trauma, there is a _____ of the bone.
- 11 This type of wound occurs from a sharp object such as a knife or razor blade.
- 13 Diaphoresis is excessive _____.
- 14 A _____ degree burn is superficial, with only redness of the skin as a result.

