

Health Science Facts 1

ACROSS

- 6 A fasting blood _____ level above 120 is termed "hyperglycemia".
- 7 A "Simian Crease" is found in the _____ of a patient with Down's Syndrome.
- 9 A "Buffalo hump" and "Moon facies" are seen in _____ Disease.
- 11 The _____ valve connects the left atrium with the left ventricle.
- 13 Bile is manufactured in the _____.
- 14 The pulmonary vein travels to the _____.
- 15 When washing hands properly, fingers should be pointed _____.

DOWN

- 1 Ruggae are found in the lining of the _____.
- 2 The pulmonary artery travels to the _____.
- 3 Blood exits the left ventricle through the _____ valve, on the way to the aorta.
- 4 "QID" means _____ times a day.
- 5 The shoulder is an example of a ball and _____ joint
- 8 _____ stones are common in females who are fat, forty, and fertile.
- 10 "Epistaxis" means bleeding from the _____.
- 12 This is given to a patient suspected of having an MI, because it prevents platelets from "sticking".

Health Science Facts 1

