

Legal Responsibilities

ACROSS

- 2 A patient with schizophrenia may be declared mentally _____ by a judge.
- 4 Defamation that is written is called _____.
- 5 If you reveal a person's health information without his consent, you are guilty of invasion of _____.
- 7 If the nurse fails to put the side rails of a bed up, and the patient falls out of bed, fracturing her hip, the nurse is guilty of _____.
- 13 Keeping a patient hospitalized against her will is called false _____.
- 14 Failure of a professional to use the skill and learning commonly expected in that individual's profession, resulting in injury, loss, or damage.
- 15 A wrongful act that does not involve a contract is called a _____;

DOWN

- 1 All information given to a healthcare provider by a patient is called _____ communication, and must remain confidential.
- 3 _____ law focuses on legal relationships between people and the protection of a person's rights.
- 6 Patients are allowed to see and obtain copies of their medical _____.
- 8 Any care that results in physical harm, pain, or mental anguish is termed _____.
- 9 Defamation that is spoken is called _____.
- 10 The health insurance portability and accountability act is more commonly known as _____.
- 11 The unlawful touching of another person without consent is called _____.
- 12 A threat or attempt to injure is called _____.

Legal Responsibilities

