

Nervous System and Eye Review

ACROSS

- 2 The hollow areas within the brain that allows for the storage of Cerebrospinal fluid (CSF) is called the _____.
- 3 The _____ nerve takes signals from the eye and carries it to the Occipital lobe of the brain.
- 8 Inflammation of the thin covering of the outer eye by bacteria, virus, or foreign object can cause _____.
- 13 _____ carry nerve impulses towards the nerve body.
- 14 _____ occur when the lenses of the eyes becomes cloudy.
- 17 The colored part of the eye, with the pupil in the center is called the _____.
- 18 The _____ oblongata is the area of the brain concerned with heart and respiratory rate.
- 19 The "projection screen" in the back of the eye is called the _____.
- 20 The innermost layer of the meninges is called the _____ mater.

DOWN

- 1 "Nearsightedness" is also called _____.
- 3 Another name for the "nerve cell" is the _____.
- 4 The _____ Nervous System consists of the brain and spinal cord.
- 6 The _____ Nervous System consists of the spinal nerves and cranial nerves.
- 7 An increase in CSF pressure in the head can cause a deformity of the skull called _____.
- 9 The _____ lobe is the area of the brain that deals with visual input.
- 10 This lobe of the brain controls our coordination, balance, and motor movements.
- 11 Another term for "farsightedness" is _____.
- 12 This eye disease has an increase in Aqueous humor pressure.
- 15 The white part of the eyes is called the _____.
- 16 The tough outer layer of the meninges is called the _____ mater.

Nervous System and Eye Review

